

Transition your Military Training into Leadership in the Civilian Workforce

As military professionals leave the service to build civilian careers, the elite embody an influential combination of purpose, leadership, and a drive to succeed. At Somos, we recognize these strengths and have created a truly unique onboarding experience that helps set our military professionals up for success.

Who Are We?

Somos provides trusted information that drives global connections.

Trusted Administrator

We provide registry management services for the North American Numbering Plan (NANP), the Toll-Free Number Registry (TFNRegistry™) and the Reassigned Numbers Database (RND).

Data Solutions Company

We offer a robust set of trusted voice, messaging, authentication enablement and identity management solutions that help keep communication safe, secure, and trustworthy

Customer-Obsessed

We work collaboratively to build market value and creatively resolve industry challenges and are committed to delivering leading-edge solutions that help our customers connect, innovate, and grow with confidence.

Who Are We Looking For?

Innovators

Leaders

Creative Thinkers

Hear From Veterans at Somos!

As an Air Force and civil service veteran, I've worked in many different government organizations and can attest that Somos has an amazing culture. The leadership team is fully committed to fostering a vibrant, inclusive team that is driven to provide world class customer service, while never losing sight of the individuals that make up the company.

Kevin Green
Sr. Director, Public Policy & External Relations

I am a US Navy Veteran who now supports Somos' IT organization. From even before day one, my military service was recognized and appreciated. Somos leadership understands that military members have a unique training that imbues certain philosophies: Duty, Honor, Loyalty, Teamwork, and Selflessness. Somos understands and values these military philosophies in their corporate world.

Carl Chalbeck
IT Support Specialist

The military is one of the greatest training grounds for leaders and innovators. At Somos, I have been able to leverage this leadership and innovation to meet daily challenges and succeed. Join our team, and bring all of your discipline and work ethic here. We are a great company to be a part of with a fantastic culture, camaraderie, and esprit de corps.

Gary McKay
Director of Enterprise Cloud Services Delivery